

Hi!

Follow this treasure hunt, fill in the answers correctly and you will win a treasure hunter's treat!

Start in the Car Park

Clue 1: Older Children – Why does the Middle White make such a good Mum?

Younger children – I have a pink curly tail and a snorty snout – who am I and what are my babies called?

.....
.....

Clue2: Older Children – What colour is an Appleyard Duck's beak and feet?

Younger children – I like to swim in water, I have feathers, I can fly – who am I and what are my babies called?

.....
.....

Clue 3: Older Children – What is the temperament of a Maran and what does this make them prone to?

Younger children – I lay eggs, I have a beak and make the sound 'cluck cluck' – who am I and what are my babies called?

.....
.....

Clue 4: Older Children – At the top of the climbing frame there is an instrument that magnifies objects making them look bigger, astronomers use these, what are they called?

Younger children – What machines can you see in the sandpit?

.....
.....

Now let's walk on down to the courtyard, be sure to follow the pedestrian's route and take care crossing the road!

- Clue 5: Older children - How many teats does a cow's udder have?
Younger children – I make milk for you to drink, I like to eat grass – who am I and what are my babies called?

.....
.....

Let's move on to the viewing gallery, have a look at the factory and watch the video.

- Clue 6: Older children – How long is a cow pregnant for before she has her calf?
Younger children – What is a boy cow called?

.....
.....

- Clue 7: Older children - What temperature is the milk held at in the pasteurising vat?
Younger children – Can you name one of the ingredients that we use to make ice cream? Remember, this is why we keep so many cows at the farm!

.....
.....

Now, back down to the shop and tearoom, mind, your step!

- Clue 8: Older children – If you wanted to buy a chocolate waffle cone with a flake and a pot of Sisley's Jam, how much money would you need?
Younger children – Can you name three flavours of ice cream?

.....
.....

Well done! Now hand your answer sheet to the lady in the tearoom and if you have answered the questions correctly you may choose an ice cream cone!